

REKADUN KAJIAN KEMERKASAN
CORRUPTION ACT 2009

(Law 2009)

Rekado is provided for the establishment of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission, to make further and better provision for the prevention of corruption and the recovery summary efforts and associated measures.

[1-1-2009]

ENAKTMENT BY THE PARLIAMENT OF MALAYSIA IN PARLIAMENT

Part I

PREAMBLE

1. Short title and commencement

(1) This Act may be cited as the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission Act 2009.

(2) This Act comes into operation on 1 January 2010.

2. Principal objects of law

The principal objects of this Act are—

- (a) to promote the integrity and accountability of public and private sector administrations by establishing an independent and autonomous anti-corruption body; and
- (b) to enhance public confidence, public officials and members of the public about corruption and its detrimental effects on public and private sector administration and public community.